PROFIL

State-of-the-art meets process reliability

I support people in becoming the best leaders they can be. In the course of this I provide process reliability and individual consulting that integrates state-of-the-art methods and mindset. In this way I am able to develop solutions that have a lasting impact.

It is important to me that I am up to date in terms of content and methodology, and that I understand the customers' and participants' needs in order to develop creative and customer-specific solutions.

Customers and participants thus perceive me to be a reliable and creative partner with a holistic approach to the design and delivery of selection and development tools, as well as training measures.

Creating lasting 'aha' moments, both in selection procedures and in training programs, gives me energy and motivates me to give my all in every situation.
